

What is PABSS?

Protection and Advocacy for Beneficiaries of Social Security is a program for people who receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) benefits based on disability or blindness.

Co-Ad provides advocacy to help you get or keep a job. Our purpose is to protect your right to secure or regain employment.

Why should I consider working?

Because you may be able to:

Increase your income

Increase your independence

Expand your choices for living

Expand your community involvement

Develop new goals

Who can get PABSS Services?

People with disabilities who receive SSI or SSDI, and:

- ▶ Need help returning to work
- ▶ Have questions about their benefits when returning to work
- ▶ Have problems getting work place accommodations
- ▶ Have complaints about employment service providers, employers, or other organizations involved in return to work efforts
- ▶ Experience work place discrimination

These materials are available in alternate formats upon request.

What will happen to my benefits if I return to work?

The PABSS Program works with Community Work Incentives (CWIC) Coordinators. They can help you plan for changes in your benefits caused by getting a job.

They will also help you understand programs that will gradually reduce your benefits as you reach self-sufficiency.

This information will help you decide how and when you can go to work.

Most Co-Ad services are provided free of charge
