

What is PAVA?

The Protection and Advocacy for Voting Access (PAVA) program makes sure people with disabilities have full access to the voting process.

This includes:

- Registering to vote
- Casting votes
- Accessible polling places

Accessible Voting Options:

- Voting with the help of someone you choose
- Absentee voting by mail
- Absentee voting in person
- Accessible Voting Machines

PAVA is funded by the Federal Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) as a provision of the Help America Vote Act (HAVA) of 2002.

Your Voting Rights

You have the right to vote by yourself, or with help from a person you choose.

You have the right to vote the way you want.

You have the right to get help if someone tries to stop you from voting.

Even if you have a conservator or guardian, you have a right to vote unless a judge specifically said you cannot.

You have the right to be shown how to mark your choices on the ballot.

If you are in line when the poll closes, you must be allowed to vote.
